ABOUT ME

As an International Relations student at Van Yüzüncü Yıl University, I have active experience in project coordination, social entrepreneurship, and community management. I have held roles such as Vice President of the Eurodesk Community, member of the Technology Community, and coordinator in national projects supported by the Ministry of Youth and Sports. I have developed an interdisciplinary skill set through international mobility programs (Erasmus+ KA154), entrepreneurship competitions, and digital marketing training. I am a social impact-oriented professional, open to learning and strong in project management.
